Friday, November 5, 2004

This is a cross-cultural encounter activity where the participants will have the experience of visiting “the other” culture and be able to report it back to their home culture what they observed. The main objective of this activity is for the participants to realize that no one should reach a judgment about another culture until they collect enough data to make conclusions. It is a mind-boggling experience for all participants.

Saturday, November 6, 2004

The main objective of this 6-hour workshop will be to share sign vocabulary used to discuss current U.S. and world affairs. The workshop facilitator will provide guidance and feedback regarding the appropriate signs used for discussing the numerous issues facing today’s society. Topics may include: U.S. and world governments, Military operations, Medical advances, Technological advances. The workshop will be presented in ASL only -interpreters will not be provided.

About the Presenter

Dr. Kemp is a professor at Gallaudet University -- chair of the ASL and Deaf Studies Department. He received an Ed. D from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in 1986. His areas of interest focus on finding a predictor tool to determine whether a prospective sign language student can successfully master the target language and on visual gestural communication. Since 1982, he has served as an international consultant in the following countries: Canada, Germany, Switzerland, Uruguay, Brazil, Argentina, Colombia, Costa Rica, Grenada, Trinidad, Puerto Rico, Dominican Republic, Egypt, and Israel. During his international visits, he trains Deaf people on how to teach their respective national languages.
